About this Product Disclosure Statement

This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) is designed to help You consider whether Travel with Jane Travel Insurance is right for You by describing the benefits and features of the Policy and by setting out the terms, conditions, limits and exclusions of the cover. You should read the PDS before purchasing this insurance. Your Policy is made up of this PDS, the Certificate of Insurance and any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an endorsement) which may vary or modify the above documents. Together they form Our agreement with You. All benefits are subject to the Policy terms, conditions, exclusions and limits of cover described in this PDS.

Certificate of Insurance

When You purchase Travel Insurance with Travel with Jane You will be issued with a Certificate of Insurance. The Certificate of Insurance forms part of Your Policy.

It will, amongst other things, detail the insured travellers and Dependants, the type of Policy You have purchased, Your destination and dates of travel, any optional benefits selected by You, the premium, and any variations to the standard terms and conditions that apply specifically to You or Your Policy.

Who can purchase this Policy?

Cover is only available if:

- You are an Australian citizen, or holder of a valid Australian permanent residency visa, permanently residing at an Australian address and who holds a current Australian Medicare card which is not a visitor Medicare card; and

- You purchase Your Policy before You commence Your Journey; and
- Your Journey commences and ends in Australia; and
- You meet the following age limits:
 - Luxe or Lite Policy: at the time of purchase You are not more than 79 years old;
 - Annual Multi-Trip Policy: at the time of purchase You are not more than 75 years old.

How to get the most out of Your Policy

Step 1: Select the level of cover that is right for You

Before You purchase a Policy You should (and We rely on You to) read the full PDS to understand the Policy's features, limitations, exclusions, benefits and risks. Here are some specific things You may find helpful:

- The "Table of Benefits" on page 11 summarises the cover available. The amount of each benefit in the Table of Benefits is for all claims combined under that section. Sub-limits may apply. For example, the most We will pay for a single item of Luggage and Personal Effects is $750 even though the combined limit for all Luggage and Personal Effects claims is higher.
- "YourCover" on pages 44 to 64 explains the benefits in greater detail, including a description of the limitations and any exclusions specific to each benefit.
- "Sports and leisure activities" on page 18 explains how We treat certain activities You may participate in while travelling.
- "Optional benefits" on pages 23 and 24 describes additional cover available for Winter Sports, and the option to eliminate Your Excess.
- Following the description of each benefit is a list of the circumstances when “We will not pay” on pages 44 to 64. These are the limits and exclusions specific to that particular benefit.

- “General exclusions that apply to all sections” on pages 65 to 69 lists the exclusions that apply to all parts of the Policy. Note that these include additional exclusions specific to medical conditions and sports and leisure activities.
- “Pre-Existing Medical Conditions” on pages 17 and 20 describes how Pre-Existing Medical Conditions affect YourCover. Note that there are 43 Pre-Existing Medical Conditions that may be automatically covered. There are also medical-related general exclusions on pages 65 to 69.
- “Pregnancy” on page 22 describes how pregnancy affects YourCover. Generally, if You are pregnant there are limitations and exclusions to cover and in some instances You will not be covered at all. There are however, certain benefits that apply even if You are pregnant.
- “Policy options” on page 26 describes Our Lite and Luxe Policies. If You frequently travel on Journeys of 30 days or less You may want to consider Our Annual Multi-Trip Policy.
- If You are travelling on an Australian cruise or travelling only within Australia You should closely review the section “Special destinations” on page 28.
- “Important Matters” on 32 to 37 contains important information about Your Duty of Disclosure, Your “cooling off” period, Our Privacy Policy, Our internal dispute resolution process and more.
- “Words with special meaning” on pages 38 to 43 is a list of important words in the Policy that have special meanings that may be different to Your understanding. They start with a capital letter.

Step 2: When You are travelling

To get the most out of Your Policy when You are travelling, remember that:

- If You have an emergency You can call Us anytime 24 hours a day, 7 days a week on +61 2 8256 1794 (reverse charges if outside Australia).
- If You need to make a non-emergency claim call Us on +61 2 8256 1794. Our hours are 9am to 5pm Monday to Saturday inclusive.
- If You have any general questions, phone Us on +61 1300 183 916. Our hours are 8:30am to 5:00pm weekdays.
- You must take all care to protect Your possessions. There are times when We will not pay if You have not looked after Your Luggage and Personal Effects. For example, We will not pay if You transport Your jewellery, computer or certain other items in the cargo hold of the airplane or other modes of transportation. Similarly, We will not pay if Your items are left unattended in a Public Place or in a motor vehicle overnight. This is not a complete list of times when We will not pay if You do not protect Your possessions. See Section 11.2 on page 56 for other ways You must protect Your possessions.
- If something is stolen from You, You must report the theft within 24 hours to the police or an office of the bus line, airline, shipping line or rail authority You were travelling on when the theft occurred. You must prove that You made a report by providing Us with a written statement from whoever You reported it to. Note that even if You have made a police report We will not pay a claim if You have not taken all care to protect Your possessions.
- You can extend Your Lite and Luxe Policy by phoning Us at least two business days before Your Policy expires. Your Annual Multi-Trip Policy may be automatically extended. See “Extension of cover” on page 30 for details.

If You are visiting only Australian ports during Your cruise, then at the time You purchase Your Policy You must specify "Australian Cruise" as Your destination. Lite and Luxe Policies

- The cover for Cancellation fees and lost deposits (Section 3) begins from the time the Policy is issued.

Important matters

Under Your Policy there are rights and responsibilities that You and We have. Here are some You should be aware of. This section will also help You to decide if this Policy is right for You.

Who is the insurer

YourCover Pty Ltd (ABN: 35169038466 AFSL: 461299), Coverholder at Lloyd's is the insurer and the issuer of this PDS.

Your Duty of Disclosure

You have a legal duty of disclosure to Us whenever You apply for or change an insurance Policy.

What You must tell Us

You have a general duty to disclose to Us everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You, and if We do on what terms. You have this duty until We agree to insure You. However, Your duty does not require You to disclose anything:

- That reduces the risk to be undertaken by Us;
- That is generally well known;
- That We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know; or
- In respect of which We have waived Your duty.

If You do not tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions honestly or do not properly disclose to Us, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim and/or may cancel the Policy. If You act fraudulently in answering Our questions or not disclosing to Us, We may refuse to pay a claim or treat the Policy as never having existed.

Your general duty applies to changes

Your general duty applies in full when You change the insurance Policy.

Your general duty is limited for new Policies

When You apply for a new Policy Your duty of disclosure applies, but You do not need to disclose something to Us unless We specifically ask You about it. However You must be honest in answering any questions We ask You. You have a legal duty to tell Us anything You know, and which a Reasonable person in Your circumstances would include in answering the questions. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure You and anyone else to be insured under the same Policy, and on what terms.

Who needs to tell Us

It is important that You understand You are disclosing to Us and answering Our questions for Yourself and anyone else You want to be covered by the Policy.

What You pay

The premium You pay is shown on the Certificate of Insurance. It is calculated when You purchase the Policy and if You vary or extend cover. The premium is calculated based on a number of factors, including the Policy You have chosen, Your age, Your travel destination(s), the length of Your Journey plus any Optional Benefits You have chosen. The amount You pay may include allowances for government fees, taxes and charges (including stamp duty and GST) and may include administration fees, which, if charged, will be listed on the Certificate of Insurance.

Cooling off period

You have a full 14 days from the start date of the Policy (as set out in the Certificate of Insurance) to make sure You are happy with every aspect of Your Travel with Jane Travel Insurance Policy. This is known as the “cooling off” period. During this time You may cancel the Policy simply by writing to Us and We will give You a full refund.

You cannot cancel Your Travel with Jane Travel Insurance Policy if You have exercised any of Your rights or powers under the Policy (e.g. You have made a claim) or if You have started the Journey within the 14 day cooling off period. After this period You can still cancel Your Policy but We will not refund any part of Your premium if You do.

How We protect Your privacy

We value Your privacy. Our Privacy Policy, available at www.travelwithjane.com/privacy-policy or by calling us, sets out how we protect Your personal information.

- You must give Us any information, at Your expense, that We reasonably ask for to support Your claim. Information such as but not limited to police reports, valuations, medical reports, original receipts or proof of ownership will be required. We may ask You to provide Us with translations into English, if required, of such documents to enable Us to carry out Our assessment of Your claim.
- You must provide Us supporting evidence and such other information as We may reasonably require within the requested timeframe (the detailed requirements for necessary documents and timeframes are stated under each section if applicable).
- For all claims, evidence of the value of the property insured or the amount of any loss must be kept.
- For medical, Hospital or dental claims, contact Us as soon as practicable.
- For loss or theft of Your Luggage and Personal Effects, report it immediately to the police and obtain a written notice of Your report.
- For damage or misplacement of Your Luggage and Personal Effects, caused by the airline or any other operator or accommodation provider, report the damage or misplacement to an appropriate official within 24 hours of discovering the loss and obtain a written report, including any offer of settlement that they may make.

- Submit full details of any claim in writing within 30 days of Your return.
- Do not admit fault or liability. In relation to any claim under this Policy You must not admit that You are at fault, and You must not offer or promise to pay any money, or initiate or respond to litigation, without Our approval.
- We choose how we settle claims. It is the decision of our claims department to repair or replace damaged / lost / stolen items or cash settle the claim. Whichever is the lesser. We will repair, depreciate depending on the age and condition of the item or replace with the equivalent in today's market based on the original items specifications. We are under no obligation to pay claims without proof of ownership and proof of event.

Excess

This refers to the amount(s) You are required to pay or bear Yourself when You make a claim under Your Policy. A $100 Excess per person, per claim applies to all benefits unless otherwise specified in the Policy or You have purchased the Excess Removal optional benefit and it is shown on the Certificate of Insurance.

Claims processing

We will process Your claim within 10 business days of receiving a completed claim form and all necessary supporting documentation. If We need additional information, a written notification will be sent to You within 10 business days.

Depreciation

Depreciation will be applied to claims for Luggage and Personal Effects at such rates as reasonably determined by Us.

If You can claim from anyone else

We will not cover you for loss or an event or liability to the extent that it is covered by any other insurance Policy, medical or health scheme or Act of Parliament or any benefit which we are legally prohibited to pay by law. We will however pay the difference between what is payable under that other insurance Policy, medical or health scheme or the relevant Act of Parliament and what you would have been entitled to recover under this Policy to the extent permitted by law.

Other insurance

If any loss, damage or liability covered under Your Policy is covered under another insurance Policy, You must give Us details of such insurance.

Where You would be covered under Your Policy for the relevant loss, damage or liability but another Policy under which You are the contracting insured also covers (all or part of) the relevant loss, damage or liability, You can choose which Policy(ies) to claim under.

Where You would be covered under Your Policy for the relevant loss, damage or liability but another Policy covers You for all or part of the relevant damage, if You are not a contracting party under the other Policy but have a right to claim under the other Policy by operation of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) or otherwise, We will not pay Your claim to the extent Your loss, damage or liability is covered by the other Policy. If You make a claim under one insurance Policy and You are paid the full amount of Your claim, You cannot make a claim under the other Policy.

If You make a claim under another insurance Policy (or if another insurance Policy does not cover the loss, damage or liability) and You are not paid the full amount of Your claim, We will make up the difference where covered by Our Policy. We may seek contribution from Your other insurer. You must give Us any information or assistance We reasonably ask for to help Us make a claim from Your other insurer.

Subrogation and assistance with recovery

For the purpose of the subrogation section, “You” and “Your” will include any beneficiary (including third party beneficiary) under Your Policy.

If You are aware of any third party that You or We may recover money from, You must inform Us of such third party.

We have the right to recover from any person, in Your name, the amount of any claim paid under this Policy and We have full discretion in the conduct, settlement or defense of any claim in Your name. You are to assist and permit to be done, all acts and things as required by Us for this purpose.

If We recover more than the amount We have paid to You or on Your behalf and Our administrative and legal costs incurred in connection with the recovery, the balance will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) as amended.

If We pay You for lost or damaged property and You later recover the property or it is replaced by a third party, You must pay Us the amount of the claim We paid You or hand over to Us the replaced or recovered property.

Salvage

If We pay a claim for any lost or damaged Luggage and Personal Effects or for any travel services any salvage rights will become Our property.

Goods and Services Tax

How GST affects Your claim if You are a business traveller

If You are entitled to claim an input tax credit in respect of a cost for which a claim is made, or would be entitled to an input tax credit if You were to incur the relevant cost (i.e. in replacing a lost or stolen item), the amount We would otherwise pay will be reduced by the amount of that input tax credit.

Travel within Australia only

If You are entitled to claim an input tax credit in respect of Your premium You must inform Us of the amount of that input tax credit (as a percentage) at the time You first make a claim. If You fail to do so, You may have a liability for GST if We pay You an amount under this Policy.
